Erasmus Staff Mobility for Teaching

From Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdellah University of Fez, Morocco to University of Palermo, Italy

"I am delighted to share some highlights from my teaching mobility at the Università degli Studi di Palermo, where I had the opportunity to teach "Financial markets principles" within the Erasmus+ programme.

I extend my sincere gratitude to Prof. Enzo Scannella, an expert in banking and finance, for his warm welcome and for sharing his valuable expertise. Many thanks also go to Dr. Simona Mercantini and Prof. Salvatore Polizzi for the enriching discussions.

It was an honor to meet and exchange with the Mauritanian delegation, represented by Professor Mohamed Abdellahi Arafa, Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Management in Nouakchott.

This mobility highlights the importance of international academic and scientific collaboration in fostering knowledge sharing and strengthening institutional ties between my home university Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdellah University and the Università degli Studi di Palermo."
